Re: 220 Coster, LLC et al v. Massachusetts Bay Insurance Co.
Case No. 14-cv-07027 (AJN)

Dear Judge Nathan:

We represent Plaintiffs 220 Coster, LLC and B&M Linen Corp. in the above-referenced action. We write, with the consent of and on behalf of the parties in this action, regarding Your Honor's May 8, 2015 Order. [ECF Docket No. 38.]

On May 8, 2015, counsel for the parties wrote to the Court to request an adjournment of a status conference scheduled for May 15, 2015. [ECF Docket No. 37.] The parties sought an adjournment because they had reached a settlement in principle and were working on drafting the settlement agreement. That same day, Your Honor issued an Order discontinuing the action without prejudice. [ECF Docket No. 38]. The Order provided for "restoring the action to this Court's calendar if the application to restore the action is made within thirty (30) days." [Id.] The Order also adjourned all scheduled conferences sine die. [Id.]

The thirty days provided in Your Honor's Order expire on Monday, June 8, 2015, however, as of today; the parties are still working to finalize the settlement agreement. Accordingly, and as the parties' first such request, the parties respectfully request an adjournment of the date to restore the action without prejudice until Monday, June 22, 2015 or such other and further date as the Court deems appropriate.

Thank you for your consideration of this request.

Respectfully submitted,

Peter A. Halprin, Esq.
